Gentlemen:

We understand that Brazil issued a Victory Medal following in form those issued by the various allies in the world war. If so, would it be possible through your offices to obtain one of these for us for exhibition? This museum has probably the best general collection of decorations in the world. Unfortunately our collection of Brazilian decorations is very inferior and if it is possible to get a complete set of orders, decorations and war medals of Brazil we would much appreciate it. Several of the various governments have supplied us with these. I beg to remain

Very truly yours,

Brazilian Embassy,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:-

We have recently read in a journal that the Government of Brazil has restored the "Order of the Southern Cross", which was originally instituted in 1922 by Don Pedro I. As the society has a large collections of the decorations of the world countries and an extensive library on the subject, we would like very much to have a copy of the Official Decree which authorized this new Order.

May we ask the favour of you that you send us a copy of the Decree, together with an illustration of the Cross. And if it is possible, may we also take the liberty of having a specimen of the new decoration sent for our museum. Several of the world countries have already sent us specimens of such pieces for our cabinet.

We would be glad to show you our extensive collection any time you will call. The museum is open for inspection at all times, save holidays.

Very truly yours,

Harrold E. Gillingham, Chairman, Committee on Medals & Decorations

Dear sir:

With reference to your letter of March 17, 1933, and my acknowledgment of the 22nd of the same month, I beg to inform you that I have now received a reply to my communication to Rio de Janeiro requesting for you a complete set of Brazilian orders, decorations and war medals.

I take pleasure in sending you today by registered mail a box containing four medals as follows: "CAVELEIRO DA ORDEM NACIONAL DO CRUZEIRO DO SUL" (Knight of the Order of the Southern Cross), "CRUZ DE CAMPANHA" (War Cross), "MEDALHA DA VITORIA" (Victory Medal) and "MEDALHA DE BONS SERVIÇOS MILITARES" (Military Good Service Medal).

I am sorry to tell you, however, that this is not a complete set as requested by you, but it is all that is available for presentation to your museum.

With best wishes, believe me,

Very sincerely yours,
